

SC Birth Outcomes Initiative Environmental Scan®

GETTING STARTED

Use the current version of Acrobat Pro® or the free Adobe® Acrobat Reader.

- For best viewing, do NOT run the SC BOI Environmental Scan® pdf from a web browser (e.g., Internet Explorer, Chrome, Firefox, etc.) OR from a flash drive. Instead, save it directly to your computer and use that saved copy.
- The Scan® pdf is best viewed on a Windows or Macintosh desktop or laptop computer – not a phone or tablet.
- All links in the Scan® pdf point to internal content (i.e., NO links point to external sites). See “Using Hyperlinks in the PDF” on page 7 of the SC Birth Outcomes Initiative Environmental Scan® User Guide for more details.
- The interactive map on page 8 of the Scan® pdf may take several seconds to load.
- To make best use of the Scan® pdf, users are encouraged to review all of its tables and metadata.
- See the SC Birth Outcomes Initiative Environmental Scan® User Guide for more details about the information the Scan® contains and how to access it.
